Our service

Mirtillo is the leading third-party manufacturing company in India specializing in plant-based drinks, including oat, almond, soy, millet, and coconut. Our recently upgraded facility in Pune can produce up to 5000 liters per hour (30 metric tons per day). We offer our products in various formats such as Tetra Paks (180ml, 200ml, and 1 liter), PP & Glass bottles, and Tins (200 & 250ml).

Known for our technical expertise and start-up friendly approach, Mirtillo helps in new product development with lab-scale pilot trials conducted at our state-of-the-art innovation center in Santa Cruz, Mumbai. Our goal is to deliver mouth-watering results that provide value for money. Through our application laboratory warehouse and headquarters in Santa Cruz, Mumbai, we aim to fully understand customer expectations, food applications, and commercial viability in order to provide tailor made solutions.

Mirtillo has a strong international presence in quality plant-based ingredients, such as protein, oat extract, food additives, colors, and flavors. We represent top global producers in the food and nutrition industry across India, Europe, USA, and the Asia-Pacific region.
